

1967 - Tonbridge CC Cricket Week

put on 50 in quick time for the second wicket.

Hull continued the good work and he and Brian Rawlings added 91 in about 50 minutes so that Tonbridge were able to declare at 180-4. This left 130 minutes for the Law Society to get the runs.

The highlight of the day's batting was a great 78 by C. Messenger, an 18-year-old.

Collapse

But the Town's bowling proved too strong and Peter Hubert and John Baker took three wickets each to help Tonbridge to a 59-run victory.

Mike Stevenson, the Cambridge Blue, led a strong Pocklington Pixies side to a nine-wicket victory over the Town who collapsed after winning the toss and electing to bat last Thursday.
